One Day Left to Bring Christmas Cheer to Needy

Only Ten "Opportunities" of Associated Charities Remain Open—Funds Will Keep Worthy Families Together for Entire Year—Little Money Will Bring Much Happiness.

Only one day before Christmas, and there are still ten opportunities to be closed. Have you accepted your chance to be generous, to be kind, to be one of those who did it unto the least of these? If you have not, why not? Do it to-day, and you will be happy in the thought of the happiness you have given others. These opportunities are real people, whose needs are being set before the people of Washington—actual cases of want and necessity—and there is absolutely no assurance that every penny given for any one of them will be scrupulously applied for that purpose only. The necessities have been worked out to a nicety, and it is assured that the money stated as required will meet the needs of the year unless, of course, some unforeseen emergency should arise.

Contributions may be sent either to this paper or to the Associated Charities, 122 H Street Northwest.

Ten Opportunities Left.

No. 1.—A splendid mother with five children under twelve. Home spotlessly clean. Children go to school and Sunday school regularly. With the care of her children she is only able to average about $1 a week. The church helps her with her rent. Five dollars a week or $25 a year will keep these children with their mother.
